

NEWS RELEASE

Issued on behalf of Cancer Research Wales

Date October 28 2005

ROCKING REUNION FOR WELSH CANCER CHARITY

ROCK band Robbers Dog are back in action this weekend for the first time in 10 years.

The South Wales-based group's 10th anniversary reunion is being staged tonight (SAT Oct 29) in a pub in Cardiff.

The live show is in The Maltsters in Merthyr Road, Whitchurch, and all the proceeds are going to the Cancer Research Wales charity.

Landlord Alan Groves, who has organised the night along with wife Karen, said: "It's the first time the original six members of the band have played together in a decade, and they're doing it for free for the charity.

"We have lost a couple of regulars to cancer this year and we wanted to put on an event to help in the fight against the disease."

Cancer Research Wales, based at Velindre Hospital in Whitchurch, funds vital cancer research projects being carried out by doctors and scientists in hospitals and research institutes throughout Wales.

-Ends-

Notes For Editors:

- Cancer Research Wales was formed by a board of trustees in 1966.
- Cancer Research Wales is based at Velindre Hospital, Whitchurch, Cardiff.
- All money raised by Cancer Research Wales is spent in Wales.

-m/f-

.../2

- The money funds vital research projects, doctors and scientists in Welsh hospitals.
- Cancer Research Wales also funds the research library at Velindre Hospital.
- The charity's patrons include Nigel Walker and Huw Edwards.
- The research team is headed by Professor Malcolm Mason.
- Over £3 million has been raised by the charity in the last few years alone.

For more information about this press release please contact Peter Bibby at Effective Communication on 029 2066 0119, or email pbibby@effcom.co.uk